

34. A valuable document incorporating a device according of any one of claims 19 to 33 wherein printing on the valuable document matches up with, and appears to be continuous with regions on the device which have a printed appearance.

35. A device according to any one of claims 19 to 33 which is used for authentication purposes, wherein authentication of the device takes place by microscopic examination and recognition of the regions.

36. A device according to any one of claims 19 to 33 which is used for authentication purposes, wherein authentication of the device takes place by machine recognition of the regions.

REMARKS

The aforesaid claims are based on the claims from the International Preliminary Examination Report.

Respectfully submitted,

March 30, 2000
Date

Thomas F. Peterson
Attorney for Applicant

Thomas F. Peterson, Reg. 24790
c/o Ladas & Parry
224 South Michigan Avenue
Chicago, Illinois 60604
(312) 427-1300

AI concluded
Sub
B5

00000-01900500